Cindy's & Bolliger
WINDOW FASHIONS

LET'S PARTNER!

As a local, family owned and operated business, we have actively supported the design community throughout our 35+ years; and successfully partnered with local designers to bring their vision to life for their clients.

We want to do the same with you

—from concept, to production and installation, all the way to those gorgeous portfolio pictures!

YOUR 'GO-TO'

- for Hunter Douglas: blinds, shades & shutters

IN THE LOOP

- We do not inflate our prices when a designer is involved, and we extend all available rebates.
- You have introduced us to a client that we didn't market for—so, we pay you for inviting us to partner with you.
- We handle the client invoicing and payments—we accept all major credit cards
- We offer you and your client the same follow up services and warranties as our direct-to-consumer sales.
- We respect that your client is always yours. We do not market to your client.
 - Our file for your client is identified by a special colored file folder and labeled with your name.
 - Down the road, if your client contacts us directly for future projects – we will reach out to you to ask if you are still actively involved. If not, we will send you a check anyway – because you made the initial introduction, and we appreciate that!
